Our Story:

The original space housed everything from a mail order dry goods store to a ladies' ready-to-wear boutique, a jewelry store, a hardware store, and the original Donlon Drug. The upstairs was also a speak-easy during prohibition.

In the 1950's, Bill Brickley opened a five and dime store which he sold in the 1960's to Ben Franklin Stores. After the Ben Franklin closed in the early 1990's, the building housed an office supply store, an antique store, and a dollar store.

After Rubaiyat purchased the building in 2007, the original tin ceiling and brick walls were exposed.

Now, at Rubaiyat, we hope that you sit back and enjoy the history and work of art that we have created here in Decorah.
